Title | Explain the relevance of the New Zealand Early Childhood Curriculum Te Whāriki as a framework for programme development
Level | 3
Credits | 2

Purpose
People credited with this unit standard are able to explain the relevance of the New Zealand Early Childhood Curriculum Te Whāriki as a framework for programme development.

This unit standard is intended primarily for assessment within programmes leading to the New Zealand Certificate in Early Childhood Education and Care (Level 3) [Ref: 2849].

This unit standard is an introduction to education and care of children in an ECE service. It is designed for people who intend to work, or are working with, children in an ECE service. People working in the wider education sector may also be interested in this unit standard. This unit standard will prepare people to advance to a higher level of study in ECE.

Explanatory notes
1. Candidates for this unit standard should be familiar with the intent of Te Tiriti o Waitangi, which informs guidelines, procedures, and practices in the ECE sector.

2. Definitions
   Children refers to the three 'broad age groups' as defined in Te Whāriki for children. These are overlapping age categories and are defined as:
   - infant – birth to 18 months;
   - toddler – one year to three years;
   - young child – two and a half years to school entry age.

   Educator may be persons and groups including teachers, supervisors, co-ordinators, whānau/families, and nannies who are involved in the learning and the development of children.

   Whānau/families may be parents, guardians, or members of the extended family who have an interest in the child.
3 Legislation includes but is not limited to:
   Education Act 1989
   Education (Early Childhood Services) Regulations 2008
   Vulnerable Children Act 2014 and subsequent amendments.

Please note

Providers must be granted consent to assess against standards (accredited) by NZQA, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be granted consent to assess against standards by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Providers and Industry Training Organisations, which have been granted consent and which are assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Requirements for consent to assess and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMR). The CMR also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.
