Guidance Information

- 1 Tikanga and kawa – the basic principles underpinning tikanga are common, but while there are some constants, the details of performance of tikanga, and their explanation, may differ. These differences may be at a rohe, iwi, hapū, whānau, or marae level. The context of the learning should include the tikanga of the local mana whenua (if capable) but learning others' tikanga is also encouraged. This is in order to enrich and enhance understanding of tikanga, and the associated reo. Kawa – are the protocols or customs of the marae (and inside the wharenuui); particularly those related to formal activities such as pōwhiri, karanga, whaikōrero etc. Kawa can be particular to marae, and may vary amongst whānau, hapū, and iwi.
- 2 Assessment against this unit standard can be conducted in a number of ways that may include, but is not limited to – oral, visual, and written presentations, whakaari, waiata, haka, mōteatea.
- 3 All sources of information must be referenced.
