Explanatory notes

- 1 Definition
Small to medium size tourism or travel workplace refers to a tourism or travel workplace which employs fewer than 19 full-time equivalent staff.
- 2 Any relevant Acts, regulations, and bylaws must be complied with during assessment against this standard.
- 3 Assessments of the elements may be in the context of a new business venture, as determined by the trainee, or the critical analysis of an existing tourism enterprise. This critical analysis is designed to allow trainees working within the tourism industry to apply the outcomes within the unit standard to the organisation in which they work. Research should form a critical component of the assessment process.

Please note

Providers must be granted consent to assess against standards (accredited) by NZQA, or an inter-institutional body with delegated authority for quality assurance, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be granted consent to assess against standards by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Providers and Industry Training Organisations, which have been granted consent and which are assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Requirements for consent to assess and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMRs). The CMR also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.
