Explanatory notes

- 1 Definitions

Dish requirements – any recipe or dish type specified by or specific to the establishment and made known to the candidate prior to assessment against this unit standard.

Pre-prepared and/or ready prepared – the use of food items which have already undergone a level of preparation ranging from cleaning and portioning to pre-packaged, ready-to-cook products.
- 2 Range

Food items – cake, bread, pastries which may be pre-prepared and/or ready prepared.
- 3 Legislation and regulations to be complied with include but are not limited to – Food Act 2014, Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992.
- 4 This unit standard can be assessed against in a simulated situation. This refers to a situation that reflects some elements of commercial realism, but the candidate must be under time pressure. There must be an end user of the product and domestic equipment can be used.

This CMR can be accessed at <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/framework/search/index.do>.

Please note

Providers must be granted consent to assess against standards (accredited) by NZQA, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be granted consent to assess against standards by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Providers and Industry Training Organisations, which have been granted consent and which are assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Requirements for consent to assess and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the CMR. The CMR also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.
