Guidance Information

- 1 For assessment, it is expected the original version of the whakaraka is used in accordance with iwi, hapū, or whānau tradition. This is intended to preserve the integrity of the whakaraka and the knowledge within it.
- 2 For outcome 2, any lyrics or waiata accompanying the whakaraka are to be demonstrated without the use of aids.
- 3 Assessment
This unit standard is intended for learners of whakaraka. Assessment of skills may occur within a learning situation or a public performance, and in individual or group settings. However, each candidate must demonstrate individual competence.
- 4 Iwi, hapū, or whānau tradition is incorporated in assessment against this unit standard. Iwi, hapū, or whānau tradition refers to performance features and/or styles unique to an iwi, hapū, or whānau, and may include such things as movement, body movement, posture, stance, and/or lyrics. It is expected that candidates follow the iwi, hapū, or whānau traditions of each whakaraka used in assessment. Other iwi, hapū, or whānau variations may be explored in order to enrich and enhance understanding.

- 5 Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of whakaraka and the essential skills of whakaraka with purpose will be evidenced through:
- describing the categories of whakaraka in depth
 - identifying performance variations and/or similarities within or between whakaraka categories
 - explaining whakaraka in depth
 - identifying the meaning of lyrics or waiata accompanying the whakaraka
 - demonstrating essential skills with purpose
 - kia hāngai te kori o te tinana ki te wairua o te whakaraka, ā, kia tika te tū (performing with deliberate movements and appropriate actions, which are relevant to the whakaraka).
- 6 Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of whakaraka, and the essential skills of whakaraka with artistic expression will be evidenced through:
- comprehensively describing the categories of whakaraka
 - identifying the background to and/or development of each whakaraka category
 - comprehensively explaining whakaraka
 - describing the purpose of each whakaraka
 - demonstrating essential skills with artistic expression
 - kia tika te mahi tahi o te ringa me te kori o te tinana (hand actions are in synergy with the body)
 - kia pakari te tū me te korikori o te tinana, ā, puta ana ngā mahi auaha (movements are performed with creativity and confidence).
- 7 Glossary
- essential skills* refer to the core features or basic performance competencies of a whakaraka;
- features* refer to body movements or actions; the use of voice and/or song; the use of any tools or props, and the materials to make them; and desired outcome or goal specific to the category of whakaraka;
- movement* refers to expressions of performance such as wiri, takahi, whātero or whētero, mahi ā-ringa, pūkana or whākana (i te wā tika);
- performance* refers to the vocal and visual presentation of whakaraka;
- tikanga* refers to the rules, purpose, and any accompanying lyrics or waiata;
- whakaraka* is used as a term to describe hand, stick and string games, referring in particular to the dexterity required for these activities.
- 8 It is encouraged that the concepts of ihi, wehi, and wana are explored to provide learners with a meaningful understanding of the essential skills when performed at a higher level.
- 9 All sources of information must be referenced.
