Guidance Information

- 1 Definitions of Māori words will be those relevant and in common usage in a hauora context. However, the local iwi and/or hapū must verify the local dialect.
- 2 Definitions
Hauora means the appropriate practices associated with the holistic wellbeing of an individual as a member of a whānau, hapū, and iwi. For the purpose of this unit standard, these practices are determined by service providers or entities that operate within a hauora context.
Hauora context refers to hauora service provision for Māori.
Traditional for this unit standard, refers to pre-1900
Treatment of te tinana includes treatment for illness (disease, ailment, or malady), and unintentional injuries, but not surgery.
Māori hauora practices for treatment refers to application and practice.
Indigenous treatment refers to application and practice.
- 3 Legislation and conventions relevant to this unit standard may include but are not limited to: the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015; Standards for Traditional Māori Healing (Wellington: Ministry of Health, 1999); and the Health and Disability Commissioner (Code of Health and Disability Services Consumers' Rights) Regulations 1996 and any amendments.
