Guidance Information

- 1 Definitions of Māori words will be those relevant and in common usage in a hauora context. However, the local iwi and/or hapū must verify the local dialect.
- 2 Definitions
Hauora means the appropriate practices associated with the holistic wellbeing of an individual as a member of a whānau, hapū, and iwi. For the purpose of this unit standard, these practices are determined by service providers or entities that operate within a hauora context.
Hauora context refers to any environment where tūroro are being cared.
Health sectors refer to private and public funded Hauora care services.
Whānau in this unit standard is inclusive of tūroro.
- 3 Legislation relevant to this unit standard may include but is not limited to: Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975; Children, Young Persons, and their Families Act 1989; Health and Safety at Work Act 2015; Privacy Act 1993; Health and Disability Commissioner Act 1994; Health and Disability Commissioner (Code of Health and Disability Services Consumers' Rights) Regulations 1996; Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001; Standards for Traditional Māori Healing (Wellington: Ministry of Health, 1999), and any amendments.
