Guidance Information

- 1 Definitions

Gazetted rules refer to the Rules of Casino Table Games which are published in the New Zealand Gazette.

Industry procedures refer to all workplace requirements in operation in casinos. These may include, but are not limited to, relevant statutory and regulatory requirements, Minimum Operating Standards, Gazetted Rules, Licence Conditions, and procedures described in training courses for the conduct of games, as approved by the Department of Internal Affairs or the Gambling Commission respectively. Industry procedures may also include procedures specific to an enterprise involved in the casino gaming industry. These additional enterprise procedures may include, without limitation, quality assurance, documentation, security, communications, health and safety, and personal behaviour.
- 2 The Gambling Act 2003 is the main piece of legislation relevant to this unit standard together with any associated legislation and/or regulations.
- 3 A written specification or brief defining the parameters of the area of concern in terms of the gazetted rules and the aims of the casino must be supplied to the candidate by the management of the casino. Evidence is required for one of – gaming tables, gaming machines, cash desks, surveillance, security.

Outcomes and performance criteria

Outcome 1

Identify the requirements for development and/or modification of the gazetted rules for a casino.

Performance criteria

- 1.1 The requirements identified for development and/or modification of the gazetted rules are in accordance with information obtained through the review process.
- 1.2 An analysis of the legislative and regulatory requirements for the operations of the specified area establishes the requirements for inclusion in the gazetted rules.
- 1.3 An analysis determines the applicability of the rules and procedures governing each area, consistent with requirements for the modification of the gazetted rules.

Outcome 2

Develop a draft modification of the gazetted rules for a casino.

Performance criteria

- 2.1 Consultation with technical experts is undertaken as required in accordance with the written specification or brief.

Range technical expertise may be accessed either internal or external to the organisation.
- 2.2 The reports and recommendations of technical experts are critically evaluated for cogency and feasibility in the development of the amendments to the gazetted rules.
- 2.3 Proposed objectives, policies, and plans incorporated in the gazetted rules are in accordance with those identified in consultation with experts and key informants during plan preparation.
- 2.4 Customer and market needs identified are addressed in the draft of the gazetted rules.
- 2.5 Planning options and alternative strategies requiring choice and decision are defined and selected in accordance with their relevance to the requirements of the gazetted rules.
- 2.6 The final draft of the gazetted rules documented is in accordance with the requirements of the Department of Internal Affairs.
- 2.7 The final draft of the operating procedures is transmitted to those who require this information in accordance with industry procedures.
