

Demonstrate knowledge of and carry out health and safety procedures for a building construction site

Level 2

Credits 4

Purpose People credited with this unit standard are able to demonstrate knowledge of the organisation's health and safety procedures, and apply the organisation's health and safety procedures under supervision for a building construction site.

Subfield Construction

Domain Construction Health and Safety, and Injury Prevention

Status Registered

Status date 28 June 2005

Date version published 25 January 2008

Planned review date 31 December 2008

Entry information Open.

Accreditation Evaluation of documentation and visit by NZQA and industry.

Standard setting body (SSB) Building and Construction Industry Training Organisation

Accreditation and Moderation Action Plan (AMAP) reference 0048

This AMAP can be accessed at <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/framework/search/index.do>.

Special notes

1 Definitions

Hazards refer to those occurrences, processes, substances or situations as determined by the supervisor that are an actual or potential cause or source of harm.
Organisation may refer to any enterprise, business or education institution involved in training, engaging, controlling, or employing people.

Organisation's procedures are the documented requirements, procedures, and processes of the workplace.

Others may include workplace visitors, other employees, students, tutors, clients, property owners, or contractors.

- 2 Legislation relevant to this unit standard includes:
Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992;
Resource Management Act 1991.
- 3 Assessment against element 2 of this unit standard may be based on evidence of demonstrated performance in the workplace or in a simulated work situations designed to draw upon similar performances to that required in work.

Elements and performance criteria

Element 1

Demonstrate knowledge of the organisation's health and safety procedures for a building construction site.

Performance criteria

- 1.1 Personal protective equipment (PPE) for the workplace is identified and its correct use is described in accordance with the organisation's procedures.
- 1.2 Methods of hazard identification are explained in accordance with the organisation's procedures.

Range hazards to self, hazards to others.
- 1.3 Accident notification procedures are explained in accordance with the organisation's procedures.
- 1.4 Workplace emergency procedures are explained in accordance with the organisation's procedures.

Element 2

Apply the organisation's health and safety procedures under supervision for a building construction site.

Performance criteria

- 2.1 Appropriate PPE is selected, correctly fitted, and/or made ready for use.
- 2.2 Hazards are identified and measures are taken in accordance with the organisation's procedures.

Range tools, equipment, environment, work practices, personal safety, safety of others.
- 2.3 Any accidents are notified in accordance with the organisation's procedures.
- 2.4 The organisation's emergency procedures are followed.

Please note

Providers must be accredited by NZQA, or an inter-institutional body with delegated authority for quality assurance, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be accredited by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Accredited providers and Industry Training Organisations assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Accreditation requirements and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the Accreditation and Moderation Action Plan (AMAP). The AMAP also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.

Comments on this unit standard

Please contact the Building and Construction Industry Training Organisation national.office@bcito.org.nz if you wish to suggest changes to the content of this unit standard.