Guidance Information

- 1 Maaga variations are acceptable in meeting the requirements of this unit standard. Endorsement of village variations may be conducted by pulotu.
- 2 Definitions
Fakaholoaga refers to the process by which something is learnt or knowledge is transmitted;
Maaga is any one of the 14 villages that the learner identifies with through either matrilineal or patrilineal lines, or self-identifies through acceptable fakaholoaga;
Pulotu refers to Niue village or community recognised and/or appointed experts;
Tāme refers to a traditional performance in which the females are seated and the males standing. It is composed for a special occasion, such as a wedding, blessing, launching, or celebration;
Traditional refers to a specific body of knowledge and practice held by pulotu, which is imparted to learners through community resources such as cultural leaders and advisors.
- 3 Assessment against this unit standard may occur in group situations, but assessment must be of individual competence.
