

Title	Demonstrate introductory knowledge of constraints on construction and demolition waste
Level	2	Credits	5

Purpose	This unit standard is for people working in the resource recovery industry but may also be appropriate for people working in the construction or demolition industries. People credited with this unit standard are able to demonstrate introductory knowledge of constraints on construction and demolition waste.
----------------	---

Classification	Resource Recovery > Resource Recovery - Construction and Demolition
-----------------------	---

Available grade	Achieved
------------------------	----------

Guidance Information

- 1 Resources relevant to this unit standard include:
 - regional and district plans;
 - local authority consent requirements;
 - local authority requirements for landfill and cleanfill sites;
 - The New Zealand Waste Strategy: Reducing Harm, Improving Efficiency 2010 Ministry for the Environment, available at <http://www.mfe.govt.nz>;
 - landfill and cleanfill guidelines;
 - REBRI (Resource Efficiency in the Building and Related Industries) guidelines for reducing building material wastes, available at <http://www.branz.co.nz/REBRI>.
- 2 Definition

Company procedure means the documented methods for performing work activities and include health and safety, environmental, and quality management.

Outcomes and performance criteria

Outcome 1

Demonstrate introductory knowledge of constraints on construction and demolition waste.

Performance criteria

- 1.1 National targets for construction and demolition waste are identified in accordance with The New Zealand Waste Strategy.

1.2 Constraints on construction and demolition waste activities are identified in accordance with local authority requirements and company procedures.

Range includes but is not limited to – dust, noise, odour, visual appearance, litter, vehicle movements.

1.3 Constraints on storm water and sediment control at construction and demolition sites are identified in accordance with local authority requirements and company procedures.

1.4 Constraints on trade waste at construction and demolition sites are identified in accordance with local authority requirements and company procedures.

1.5 Constraints on construction and demolition waste loading and transport are identified in accordance with local authority requirements.

Range includes but is not limited to – licensing of operators, collection conditions, transport conditions.

1.6 Constraints on handling and storage of construction and demolition waste are identified in accordance with company procedures.

Range includes but is not limited to – plaster board, windows, goods for reuse.

1.7 Site workers' responsibilities are identified and explained in accordance with industry guidelines.

Range includes but is not limited to – use of materials, sorting of waste, reporting.

This unit standard is expiring. Assessment against the standard must take place by the last date for assessment set out below.

Status information and last date for assessment for superseded versions

Process	Version	Date	Last Date for Assessment
Registration	1	25 October 2007	31 December 2025
Rollover and Revision	2	28 March 2019	31 December 2025
Review	3	24 April 2025	31 December 2025

Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMR) reference

0014

This CMR can be accessed at <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/framework/search/index.do>.