Guidance Information

1 Definitions

Legislative requirements refer to the obligations of the employer and/or employee under the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 and Health (Hairdressers) Regulations 1980.

Workplace requirements mean the practices prescribed by management as being the quality standards for client contact and work organisation for a particular salon.

2 In this unit standard all work must comply with legislative requirements and must ensure optimum hair condition and maximum client comfort at all times.

3 For outcome two, at least half a head of hair must be demonstrated. The remainder of hair must be moulded or placed.

Prepared hair includes analysis of hair including growth patterns.

4 Useful references for this unit standard include the Employers' Training Manual, and the Training Record Book. Both of these publications, and others that may be of use, can be obtained from the New Zealand Hair and Beauty Industry Training Organisation Inc., PO Box 11-764, Wellington, or via <http://www.hito.org.nz>.
