Guidance Information

1 Definitions

A commercially acceptable timeframe varies for different hairdressing services. Times reflect performance required to support a commercial salon's profitability.

Legislative requirements refer to the obligations of the employer and/or employee under the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 and Health (Hairdressers) Regulations 1980.

Workplace requirements mean the practices prescribed by management as being the quality standards for client contact and work organisation for a particular salon.

- 2 In this unit standard all work must comply with legislative requirements and health and safety best practice, and must ensure optimum hair condition and maximum client comfort at all times.

3 Range

Assessment against this unit standard requires evidence of a classic French roll (including back combing), and one other long hair up style that incorporates a variety of techniques. Other techniques to be used may include but are not limited to pin curls, twists, petals, knots, ponytails, braids. Hair pieces, extensions, padding or adornment may be used.

A commercially acceptable timeframe varies for different hairdressing services.

Times reflect performance required to support a commercial salon's profitability. A commercially acceptable timeframe to dress and finish the hair is a maximum of forty-five minutes.

- 4 Essential underpinning skills and knowledge for this standard are covered by Unit 33229, Use design fundamentals to create plans for constructing hairstyles.
