Explanatory notes

- 1 Performance of outcomes of this unit standard will require adherence to the New Zealand Marketing Association Codes of Ethics, or an equivalent code: <http://www.marketing.org.nz/>.
- 2 Assessment guidance
Assessment for outcome 3 of this standard can be based on an evaluation of distribution objectives and channels for a product the candidate's organisation has marketed, or on a case study of distribution objectives and channels used by a New Zealand enterprise or an international enterprise with operations in New Zealand. If based on a product the candidate's organisation has marketed, commercial sensitivities must be respected and permissions sought. If based on a case study, the candidate must have access to a sufficient body of academic and/or business literature on the product to conduct the evaluation.
- 3 Definitions
Distribution channels are an arrangement of interdependent organisations involved in the process of making a product available for use or consumption by consumers or businesses.
Products encompass goods and services, and ideas.

Please note

Providers must be granted consent to assess against standards (accredited) by NZQA, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be granted consent to assess against standards by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Providers and Industry Training Organisations, which have been granted consent and which are assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Requirements for consent to assess and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMR). The CMR also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.
