Guidance Information

1 Definitions

Commercially acceptable time is stipulated in the evidence guides to candidates provided by the NZ Hair and Beauty Industry Training Organisation Inc.

Commercially acceptable time varies for different hairdressing services. Times reflect performance required for the economic viability of a trading salon.

Creative means freedom to use all ideas.

Fashion means non-basic work which can include, but is not limited to, competition-type styling.

Industry techniques are those stipulated in the evidence guides to candidates provided by the NZ Hair and Beauty Industry Training Organisation Inc.

Legislative requirements refer to the obligations of the employer and/or employee under the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015, Health (Hairdressers) Regulations 1980, Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDSs), Privacy Act 1993, Human Rights Act 1993, Smoke-free Environments Act 1990, Fire Safety and Evacuation of Buildings Regulations 2006, and subsequent amendments, and enterprise fire and emergency policies and procedures.

2 It is intended that assessment against this unit standard takes place as a part of the final stages within a programme of study or training leading towards a hairdressing qualification for a professional stylist.

3 To reflect commercially acceptable time all outcomes will be assessed in two modules of three hours (total six hours) and work in progress will not be carried forward from the first module to the second module.

- 4 In this unit standard all work must comply with legislative requirements and must ensure optimum hair condition and maximum client comfort at all times.
- 5 Useful references for this unit standard include the Employers' Training Manual, and the Training Record Book. Both of these publications, and others that may be of use, can be obtained from the New Zealand Hair and Beauty Industry Training Organisation Inc., PO Box 11764, Manners Street, Wellington 6142, or via <http://www.hito.org.nz>.
