Explanatory notes

1 Definitions

Salon refers to a hairdressing salon where the salon is registered under the Health (Registration of Premises) Regulations 1966.

Salon environment may be a workplace and/or training salon.

Expectations of the salon environment refer to the documented and/or accepted work practices within that salon. They may include instructions from senior co-workers.

Salon requirements refer to industry and legislative requirements relevant to the type of salon, for example those contained in:

Sections 6 and 7 of the Health (Hairdressers) Regulations 1980;

Health and Safety in Hairdressing: An Evaluation of Health and Safety Management Practices in the Hairdressing Industry (Wellington: Department of Labour, 2007)

available at <http://www.dol.govt.nz/PDFs/hairdressing.pdf>;

Australian/New Zealand Standard AS/NZS ISO 31000:2009, Risk management – Principles and guidelines;

AS/NZS 4804:2001 Occupational Health and Safety Management Systems - General guidelines on principles, systems and supporting techniques;

Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDSs);

Building Act 2004, Privacy Act 1993, Consumer Guarantees Act 1993; Fair Trading Act 1986, Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992, Hazardous Substances and New Organisms Act 1996, Human Rights Act 1993, and Smoke-free Environments Act 1990; enterprise fire and emergency policies and procedures; and Health (Registration of Premises) Regulations 1966, and Fire Safety and Evacuation of Buildings Regulations 2006.

Senior co-workers may include but are not limited to senior operators, supervisors, salon trainers, and managers.

- 2 Salon requirements must be adhered to for all aspects of this unit standard.
- 3 Assessment against this unit standard will include evidence collected over a period of 10 consecutive scheduled working days. The 10 consecutive scheduled working days should allow for, but not include, valid absences.

Please note

Providers must be granted consent to assess against standards (accredited) by NZQA, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be granted consent to assess against standards by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Providers and Industry Training Organisations, which have been granted consent and which are assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Requirements for consent to assess and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMR). The CMR also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.
