Guidance Information

- 1 This unit standard may contribute to the New Zealand Certificate in Skills for Living for Supported Learners (Level 1) with an optional strand in Skills for Working [Ref: 2853].
- 2 This unit standard will be carried out in situations that are limited in range, repetitive and familiar and employed within closely defined contexts.
- 3 The assessor must be satisfied that the candidate can demonstrate competence against the unit standard, with minimal support towards increased independence.
- 4 The candidate may require a longer period of learning than the 40 learning hours of teaching and learning, as determined by the 4 credits assigned to this unit standard.
- 5 This unit standard may be assessed in conjunction with other Supported Learning unit standards to allow for integrated assessment. The assessment should be integrated into a meaningful social, cultural, family/whānau, community and/or work context.
- 6 Assessments involve using a variety of methods that gives the learner the opportunity to show competence. It is recommended that the collection of evidence is naturally occurring, in real life contexts, and collected over an extended timeframe. It may be oral or written, or practical evidence.

- 7 The assessor must be satisfied that the naturally occurring evidence can be attributed to the candidate. A verifier's checklist is acceptable if accompanied by evidence that includes examples from the candidate's performance.
- 8 Assessments may involve the use of digital technology – internet, laptop/iPad/tablet/cell phone, and augmentative communication, where appropriate for the learner and context.
