Guidance Information

- Organisation* refers to a specific entity which may be – in private, public, or community and volunteer sectors; a business, a discretely managed unit within a larger entity, a Māori organisation, or a special-purpose body.

Organisational requirements may include but are not limited to:

  - organisation purpose and/or direction
  - organisation policies and processes
  - compliance: legislative/legal, health and safety
  - risk management
  - sustainability.
- Assessment and training activities and resources for this unit standard must take into consideration the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015, its regulations and any subsequent amendments. When assessment and training is contextualised for a specific industry, any industry specific legislation, codes of practice, guidelines and standards must be incorporated.

Assessment must be contextualised to take into account the operational objectives of the team, and organisation requirements.
- This unit standard can be used to support programmes leading towards the New Zealand Certificate in Workplace Health and Safety Practice (Level 4) [Ref: 3534].
