Guidance Information

- 1 This unit standard may contribute to the New Zealand Certificate in English Language (Applied) (Level 3) [Ref: 3667].
- 2 It is recommended that:
  - i the outcomes are assessed as part of an integrated unit of work, relevant to the learning context of the learner;
  - ii assessment be conducted in conjunction with assessment against other English Language unit standards at this level.
- 3 This unit standard is at a level informed by the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). A structured overview of all CEFR related scales can be found at <https://www.coe.int/en/web/portfolio/overview-of-cefr-related-scales>.
- 4 The requirements of this standard are consistent with the supporting documents. They include guidelines relating to appropriate texts, task specifications, and assessment conditions and can be found at <https://www2.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-and-standards/english-language/>.
- 5 All assessment activities must be conducted in English, which must not be the learner's first language.
- 6 Interviewer's questions and learner's responses must be tailored to fit within the time frame. Learners may not see the exact questions prior to the interview.
- 7 Learner responses may include minor phonological and linguistic errors or inconsistencies, but these must not impede meaning.

- 8 For quality assurance purposes, including moderation, assessment against this standard must be recorded both aurally and visually. Recordings must ensure the learner is clearly visible. Recorded work must not be edited. Guidelines for digital visual submissions can be found in Preparing digital visual submissions for moderation, accessed at <https://www2.nzqa.govt.nz>.
- 9 Guidelines for preparing submissions for moderation can be found at <https://www2.nzqa.govt.nz/tertiary/assessment-and-moderation-of-standards/external-moderation-application/>.
- 10 Definitions
Applied context refers to putting language into practical use in a particular field e.g. academic, community and workplace.
Common courtesies refer to interactions and behaviour that are respectful of others.
Conventions, for the purposes of this standard, refer to verbal and non-verbal strategies such as greeting, formal address, leave-taking, appropriate eye contact; and behaviour and register appropriate to the formal context.
Developed extended responses refer to the linking and explaining of additional details.
Errors refer to the systematic use of incorrect language features.
Fluency refers to a smooth flow of language with few unnatural pauses.
Inconsistencies refer to variable control in language features, where the learner can self-correct if necessary.
Spontaneity refers to responses that are natural and unrehearsed.
