Guidance Information

1 Definitions

Kaitiakitanga refers to the skills and knowledge needed to support the protection, maintenance and strengthening of the mauri, mana and tapu of Māori and their whānau, through the delivery of culturally appropriate, effective and timely health and/or social services.

For the purposes of this standard Services may include but are not limited to – employment, housing, education, financial literacy, health.

Te pono me te tika encompasses important aspects of tikanga Māori and kawa, legal obligations and compliance issues, systems and procedures, processes and ethics, and acting in a way that is socially and culturally responsible, and how these tools can be utilised to achieve the best outcomes for whānau.

Whānau is determined by the whānau in terms of support and relationships (refer to definition of Whānau ora).

Whānau Ora is about empowering whānau to take control of their future; to be self-determining (cohesive, resilient and nurturing); confidently participating in te ao Māori; to be living healthy lifestyles; to be participating fully in society; and to be economically secure; with initiatives that add value, build upon the strengths and capabilities that lead to better outcomes for whānau, hapū, iwi and hapori.
