Guidance Information

1 Definitions

Manaakitanga refers to working together with whānau, stakeholders and service providers in a caring and mana-enhancing way underpinned by te reo, tikanga and kawa and focus is on whānau strengths and abilities.

Kaitiakitanga refers to the skills and knowledge needed to support the protection, maintenance and strengthening of the mauri, mana and tapu of tangata Māori and their whānau, through the delivery of culturally appropriate, effective and timely health and or services for whānau.

Whānau ora refers to the empowerment of whānau to take control of their future, to be; self-determining (cohesive, resilient and nurturing), confidently participating in Te Ao Māori, living healthy lifestyles; participate fully in society, and to be economically secure; with initiatives that add value, and build upon the strengths and capabilities already present in the whānau, and lead to better outcomes for whānau.
