Guidance information

- 1 The basic principles underpinning tikanga are common, but while there are some constants, the details of performance of tikanga, and their explanation, may differ. These differences may be at a rohe, iwi, hapū, whānau, or marae level. The context of the learning should include the tikanga of the local mana whenua (if capable) but learning others' tikanga is also encouraged. This is in order to enrich and enhance understanding of tikanga, and the associated reo.
- 2 Definitions
Karakia may include, but are not limited to ancient chants, inoi, whakamoemiti, and whakawhetai.
Kaupapa refers to the theme, mood, and/or purpose of a hui; event; occasion. This may include, but is not limited to, rā whānau, rā whakanui, whakapōtaetanga, poukai, or mārena.
Tikanga are cultural practices and procedures exercised by Māori in their daily lives. These practices reflect the concepts upon which they are based and provide guidelines for appropriate behaviour in Māori society. They also prescribe consequences for any breaches or when tikanga is not followed. They can be particular to a marae, whānau, hapū, rohe, or iwi.
- 3 Assessment
The context of the learning should include the tikanga of the local mana whenua (where applicable) and the kawa of their marae. Where local rohe are also occupied by a number of other iwi or hapū, the tangata whenua or mana whenua view should be considered. Other iwi or hapū views should be encouraged in order to enrich and enhance understanding of tikanga, kawa, and the associated reo.

Assessment may occur within a group setting; however, each candidate must demonstrate individual competence.
- 4 Karakia must be recited without the use of aids or prompts of any kind. Candidates will be assessed on pronunciation, but not on the quality of their delivery (so long as there is no whati or break).
