Guidance Information

- 1 This unit standard may contribute to programmes leading to the New Zealand Certificate in Skills for Living for Supported Learners (Level 1) [Ref: 2853]. It is not expected to contribute to the National Certificate of Educational Achievement (Level 1) [Ref: 0928] (NCEA).
- 2 This unit standard will be carried out in situations that are limited in range, meaningful, repetitive and familiar, and ākonga/learners will be engaged in activities within defined contexts.
- 3 The assessor must be satisfied that the ākonga/learner can demonstrate competence against the unit standard, with minimal support towards increased independence.
- 4 The pace of teaching and learning for ākonga/learners with disabilities, may take longer than 50 hours to achieve 5 credits.
- 5 This unit standard may be assessed in conjunction with other Supported Learning unit standards to allow for integrated assessment. The assessment should be integrated into a meaningful social, cultural, family/whānau, community and/or work context.

- 6 Assessments involve using a variety of methods that gives the ākonga/learner the opportunity to show competence. It is recommended that the collection of evidence is naturally occurring, in real life contexts, and collected over an extended timeframe. It may be oral or written, or practical evidence.
- 7 The assessor must be satisfied that the naturally occurring evidence can be attributed to the ākonga/learner. A verifier's checklist is acceptable if accompanied by evidence that includes examples from the ākonga/learner's performance.
- 8 Assessments and evidence may involve the use of digital technology – internet, laptop/iPad/tablet/cell phone, and augmentative communication, where appropriate for the ākonga/learner and context.
- 9 For the purpose of this standard, a reader and/or writer can be used to assist the ākonga/learner in assessment.
- 10 Definitions
Maintain means to keep up routines over an extended period of time: a minimum of a month to six months relevant to the routine.
A need is something required because it is essential.
The purpose is the reason for which something is done.
Routines are commonplace tasks, chores or duties performed regularly at daily, weekly or monthly intervals. Examples of routines may include brushing teeth, having a shower, making the bed, getting a haircut, shaving, going to class regularly, class routines, attending assembly, sporting functions.
