Guidance Information

- 1 The source document for this unit standard is the Māori text, Te Tiriti o Waitangi and the English text, The Treaty of Waitangi. For the purpose of this unit standard the generic term Te Tiriti refers to both texts.
- 2 Glossary
Mātauranga Māori is inclusive of all ages and is whānau supported, modelled and monitored. It is within this context that this unit standard has been developed for Māori adults.
The term Māori is used generically, but with caution to avoid maintaining or perpetuating stereotypes and homogenous approaches to Māori development.
Programme is defined as a series of learning sessions which have their own internal coherence and lead to an overall learning outcome or set of related outcomes.
Stakeholders may include tutor/trainer, course designer, learners, provider, client organisation/s and standards setting bodies.
- 3 Sufficiency for this unit standard is three sessions, each of at least four hours duration, or the equivalent of this over a smaller number of sessions of greater duration.
- 4 Programme plan is to include but is not limited to – measurable programme outcomes that are achievable, and combine to meet stated purpose; delivery parameters include but are not limited to – timeframes, staffing, resource availability, learner entry criteria; identification of essential sequencing factors. Any variation to plan is documented with explanation of reason for and outcome of variation
