Guidance Information

- 1 Where the local rohe is occupied by whānau, hapū, and/or iwi, the tangata whenua or mana whenua view should take precedence. Other iwi or hapū views should be encouraged in order to enrich and enhance understanding of key Māori concepts and practices.
- 2 Assessment against this unit standard can be conducted in a number of ways that may include but is not limited to – oral presentations, visual presentations, written presentations, whakaari, waiata, haka.
- 3 Differences in the way Māori and Pākehā use and manage resources may include studies about kaitiakitanga versus commodification, collectivism versus individualism, holistic Māori approach versus a compartmentalised approach.
- 4 Differences in Māori and Pākehā land tenure systems may focus on the way Māori land is administered today, that is, the present land tenure system is an adaptation of the English system that tries to accommodate a Pākehā interpretation of aspects of a Māori land tenure system, e.g. take whenua.
