Explanatory notes

- 1 Definitions
Civil Defence Emergency Management (CDEM) means the application of knowledge, measures, and practices that are necessary or desirable for the safety of the public or property; are designed to guard against, prevent, reduce, or overcome any hazard or harm or loss that may be associated with any emergency; and includes, without limitation, the planning, organisation, coordination, and implementation of those measures, knowledge, and practices.
 The term controller refers to the person who is the national controller in accordance with section 10 of the Civil Defence Emergency Management Act 2002, or group controller appointed under section 26 of the same Act.
Organisation is an agency engaged in CDEM.
- 2 Performance of the outcomes in this unit standard must comply with the Civil Defence Emergency Management Act 2002, Police Act 1958, Fire Service Act 1975, and the Local Government Act 2002 and their subsequent amendments.
- 3 Assessment against this unit standard may be conducted in a simulated emergency.
- 4 The CDEM organisation’s requirements or standard operating procedures (SOPs) refer to policies and procedures on safety and operation set down by each CDEM service employer or agency or host organisation.

Please note

Providers must be granted consent to assess against standards (accredited) by NZQA, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be granted consent to assess against standards by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Providers and Industry Training Organisations, which have been granted consent and which are assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Requirements for consent to assess and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMR). The CMR also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.
